FRESNO COUNTY CLERK/REGISTRAR OF VOTERS ANNOUNCES THE TEMPORARY EVACUATION OF THE FRESNO COUNTY ELECTIONS WAREHOUSE

FRESNO, CA – Fresno County Clerk/Registrar of Voters, James A. Kus, has announced that the Fresno County Elections Warehouse (located at 4525 E Hamilton Ave, Fresno CA 93702) has been temporarily evacuated on June 11, 2026, due to a hazardous materials situation in an adjacent County of Fresno operation. An Uninterrupted Power Supply device in a co-located County facility was found to be smoking and potentially releasing harmful gases.

The Fresno City Fire Department ordered the evacuation of personnel from the warehouse facility for the remainder of today, June 11, 2026, with return currently planned for the start of the regular workday on Friday, June 12, 2026.

No staff were harmed during this evacuation. With the assistance of the City of Fresno Fire Department, the Elections Warehouse facility was fully secured prior to the completion of the evacuation process.

Due to this evacuation, the planned election results update for the June 2 Consolidated Primary Election, scheduled for the afternoon of June 11, 2026, has been rescheduled for before 10am on Friday, June 12, 2026.

For more information regarding the Fire Department evacuation, please contact the Public Information Officer for the Fresno Fire Department, Josh Sellers, at (559) 493-8759 (e-mail: Joshua.sellers@fresno.gov).
